VERC Enterprises presents $750 grant to Hedge Elementary School in Plymouth

DUXBURY, PLYMOUTH, MA, NOVEMBER 5, 2010 ... VERC Enterprises, a leading independent convenience store, gasoline station and car wash operation with 23 locations throughout Eastern Massachusetts and New Hampshire, recently presented Hedge Elementary School in Plymouth with a check for $750, a grant made possible through the ExxonMobil Educational Alliance Program.

Funded by the ExxonMobil Corporation, the ExxonMobil Educational Alliance program is designed to provide local retailers an opportunity to invest in the future of their communities through educational grants to neighborhood schools.

Shan Muhammad, Manager of the VERC Commerce Way Mobil in Plymouth, presented the check to Adam Blaisdell, Principal of Hedge Elementary School.

“We’re proud to participate in such a fine program that recognizes and supports the quality of local schools,” said Leo Vercollone, CEO of VERC Enterprises.

About VERC Enterprises

VERC Enterprises is the region’s leading, independent chain of convenience stores/gasoline stations and car washes with 23 locations throughout Eastern Massachusetts and, now, southern New Hampshire. The company began 30 years ago with a single car wash in Marshfield, in a business founded by Eugene Vercollone. Today two of Mr. Vercollone’s sons operate the company, with Leo as President and Paul as Vice President. The firm has more than 175 employees and is actively recruiting new associates and assistant managers.
